

Search IL

NEWS SUBMIT NEWS

- Home
- Scores
- Game Calendar
- Teams
- Rankings
- Player of the Week
- Stats
- Video / Audio
- Photo Gallery
- Recruiting

THE ARCHIVES

LOCKER ROOM

- Message Boards
- "Fast Break" Email
- Contests
- Classifieds
- Event Calendar
- Jobs in Lacrosse
- Leagues
- Letters to Editor
- Voice of the Fan
- Fan Zone
- I.L. Shop
- Marketplace

ABOUT I.L.

- Links
- About I.L.
- Contact us
- Link to us
- Advertise

THE MAGAZINE

- In This Issue
- Past Issues
- Subscribe
- Subscriber Services

Duke, Cornell go 2-0 at Algonquin Cup

October 10, 2005
from press releases

Photo: John Mecionis

HEMPSTEAD, NY - Although the format and the game schedule of the 2005 Algonquin Cup Men's Lacrosse Tournament was altered by two days of heavy rain on Long Island, the Blue Devils of Duke University and the Big Red of Cornell University took home bragging rights after each posted 2-0 records at the tournament Sunday at Hofstra University's James M. Stuart Stadium.

The Blue Devils downed Hobart and Stony Brook while Cornell edged the host Pride and downed Hobart to share the Cup team honors. Stony Brook finished third at 1-1 with a win over St. John's, and Hofstra and St. John's were 0-1-1 after the two teams ended their match-up tied at 7-7 in the tournament finale. Hobart was 0-2. Each game consisted of two 35-minute halves of running time.

- Game 1 - Duke 10, Hobart 1
- Game 2 - Cornell 13, Hobart 5
- Game 3 - Duke 13, Stony Brook 4
- Game 4 - Cornell 10, Hofstra 9
- Game 5 - Stony Brook 7, St. John's 5
- Game 6 - Hofstra 7, St. John's 7 (tie)

US LAXCamps Affiliates

ILAX SHOP

- Subscribe
- Gift Subscription
- Signature Series Posters
- 2005 Lacrosse Calendar
- Face-Off Yearbook
- Big Book of Lacrosse
- NCAA Championship Print

ALL EQUIPMENT

- Commonwealth Lacrosse
- Lacrosse Monkey
- Lacrosse Unlimited

Get A Free Issue

Lax World
Sports Her Way

© 2006 Inside Lacrosse. All rights reserved. Read our terms, and privacy guidelines. Designed & hosted by: Mission Media